About Your Organization

Our organization has experience in coordinating workplace integration.

This is our organization's first time participating in the MentorAbility Canada initiative.

About Your Participation

Our organization is familiar with CASE's Guiding Principles of Best Practices in Supported Employment and understands that as a CASE project, the MentorAbility Canada initiative adheres to those principles. Guiding Principles of Best Practices.

Our organization understands our responsibilities in providing meaningful mentoring opportunities to the protégé and mentor. We agree to:

- Connect with potential proteges and assist them in identifying their career and mentoring interests
- Invite and engage employers to participate in the MentorAbility Canada initiative
- Provide specialized knowledge, networking and/or promotional supports for the MentorAbility initiative

Facilitate the mentoring experience from beginning to end including:

- Facilitate the mentoring matches between the protégé and the mentor
- Prepare the mentor and the protégé for their mentoring experience
- Provide supports to the protégé and mentor during their mentoring experience
- Follow-up with the protégé and mentor after their experience
- Follow-up with the MentorAbility Canada Hub in a timely manner for reporting and learning purposes
- Take photos and document the mentoring experience for the protégé and mentor

Receiving Information

I would like to receive information from the Canadian Association for Supported Employment. Information includes emails, event invitations, newsletters, and announcements. I understand that I can unsubscribe at any time.

Additional Information:

How did you learn about MentorAbility Canada?

Other:

MentorAbility Canada follows good safety and security standards. In addition, general liability coverage is provided for all MentorAbility Canada Project protégés during their mentoring experiences.

If you have more questions or need help with the sign-up form, please connect with the nearest provincial hub coordinator.
